WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 1

7:00 Last Chance to See

Komodo Dragon

Stephen and Mark's search for the world's largest lizard, the Komodo dragon, takes them to the island of Rinca in the Malay Peninsula, where they meet villagers who have been attacked by the dangerous and endangered dragons, and help rangers fit a radio collar to a dragon as part of a research project.

8:00 The Agenda with Steve Paikin

In-depth analysis and intelligent debate on the issues that are changing our world at home and abroad. For nightly topics, visit tvo.org/theagenda.

9:00 To See If I'm Smiling

Israel is the only country in the world where 18-year-old girls are drafted for compulsory military service. Six former female Israeli soldiers revisit their tours of duty in the occupied territories with surprising honesty, stripping bare stereotypes of gender differences in the military.

10:00 Victoria Falls:

The Smoke That Thunders

A tale of life on the Zambezi River, set against the epic backdrop of Victoria Falls. The story is told from the point of view of a local fisherman, Mr. White, who has fished these waters for 69 years, and whose riverside companions are elephants, baboons, hippos and kingfishers.

11:00 The Agenda with Steve Paikin (R)

12:00 To See If I'm Smiling (R)

1:00 Born to Be Different 2 of 3 (R)

As the children grow older, some are striving for more independence. Zoe surprises her mom by deciding whether or not to go through further surgery on her arms. As William's behaviour starts to deteriorate further, his parents begin the search for answers. And with Shelbie continuing to require 24-hour care just to keep her alive, her parents are forced to rethink the way they look after their daughter.

2:00 Midsomer Murders

The Sword of Guillaume 1 of 2 (R)

Barnaby joins a trip to Brighton by wartime evacuees and the Causton Chamber of Commerce because he has reason to suspect corrupt dealings between the male Mayor of Causton and the female Mayor of Brighton. But the civic visit is cut short when one of the party is decapitated during a ride on the ghost train. 14+

3:00 Fallout (R)

DS Joe Stephens (Lennie James) returns to the housing estate on which he grew up to investigate the fatal stabbing of a teenager, Kwame Abena, by a gang of his classmates. Everyone in the community knows who killed Kwame, but no one is talking. 14+

4:30 Undersea Explorer

Ghost Fleet of the Pacific

During the Second World War the United States mounted Operation Hailstone on Japanese-held islands in the Pacific. The result from the great naval and air battle was the sunken fleet of Chuuk that today serve as artificial reefs for marine life.

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 2

7:00 Megastructures

World Island

Take a trip to Dubai, the desert city whose incredible man-made islands are becoming a world-renowned tourist attraction.

9:00 Fake or Fortune

Monet 1 of 4

Art historian Philip Mould and journalist Fiona Bruce set out to prove the authenticity of a painting thought to be made by famous impressionist Claude Monet. Art collector David Joel bought a small painting of the river Seine 18 years ago and has been trying to prove that Monet painted it ever since.

10:00 Birth of Britain

Ice Age

Over the last two-and-a-half million years, Britain has experienced numerous deep freezes that left the land uninhabitable and locked under ice sheets over a mile thick. Tracing the movement of the frozen wastes, Tony visits some of the country's most scenic spots – including the Scottish Highlands and the Lake District – to explore its chilly past.

11:00 The Agenda with Steve Paikin (R)

12:00 At Home with the Georgians

Safe as Houses 3 of 3 (R)

Amanda Vickery uses sources, from intimate diaries to Old Bailey records, to reveal how the 18th-century home was constantly under threat from theft, fire, divorce, poverty, illness, old age and death.

1:00 Last Chance to See (R)

See Wednesday at 7 pm.

2:00 Orca Killing School (R)

Throughout the oceans, orcas are supreme hunters, catching their prey with strength and cunning. For years the orcas on the southern coast of Argentina have run the risk of beaching themselves in order to catch sea lion pups, but now they are also targeting massive elephant seal pups. Can they perfect the dangerous technique, or have these killer whales taken on more than they can handle?

3:00 Extraordinary Rendition (R)

While out jogging one day, Zaafir, a mild-mannered college lecturer, is abducted to a foreign land and held without trial, only to be returned months later without explanation, a broken man left to pick up the pieces of a shattered life. Loosely based on the story of Maher Arar. 14+

4:30 Undersea Explorer

Oasis of the Deep

Superheated water flows from hydro-thermal volcanic vents in the deepest parts of the ocean. Extraordinary life forms thrive in these places.

8:00 Born to Be Different 3 of 3
 ☆ With all six children having reached age 10, the families reflect on just how much life has changed over the past decade. Zoe finds herself back in theatre for more surgery, this time for her other arm. Emily goes on her first overnight school trip without mum and dad, following the surgery that will allow her to go to the toilet on her own. And after months of relative stability, Shelbie is admitted to hospital once again. The search begins to find out what is making her so unwell.

9:00 New Tricks
 ☆ Moving Target
 The UCOS team reinvestigate a hit and run that left a cycle courier with a serious brain injury and complete memory loss of anything prior to the accident. 14+

10:00 The Jury Series II 1 of 5
 ☆ Twelve ordinary people find themselves summoned to form the jury at one of the most controversial criminal retrials of their time. On the first day, they learn that the case is a retrial of a man convicted for the violent murders of three women he met on the Internet. At the end of the day, a mysterious woman follows one of the jurors home. 14+

11:00 Invisible City
 Two boys from Toronto's Regent Park cross into adulthood, their mothers and mentors rooting for them to succeed, their environment and social pressures tempting them to make poor choices. Director Hubert Davis turns his camera on the often-ignored inner city, depicting the disconnection of urban poverty and race from the mainstream.

Lone Twin

Twins fascinate us. But what happens when one dies? Having lost her fraternal twin brother in a tragic accident at age 20, filmmaker Anna Van der Wee explores the impact of being a lone twin for most of her life. Taking audiences deep into the fascinating world of fraternal twins, the film reveals what twins can teach us about ourselves and our search for the perfect soul mate. Lone Twin is a moving journey into the nature of solitude, togetherness and the universal search for wholeness. Wednesday February 15 at 9 pm.

My Street

On filmmaker Sue Bourne's street, there are more than 300 people living in 116 houses and she barely knew a soul. So she decides to knock on their doors. Showcasing remarkable stories hidden from view, Bourne reveals millionaires living next to people on benefits and convicted drug smugglers alongside classical composers.

My Street ranges from flashes of joy to total darkness, and reflects the rich variety of life in a modern city. Wednesday February 22 at 9 pm.

FRIDAY FEBRUARY 24

- 7:00 Secret Mediterranean 4 of 4
 Sir Trevor visits three countries which have been shaped by conflict: Cyprus, an island divided after a bitter conflict in 1974; Malta, the most fought-over island in the history of the Mediterranean and Egypt; which for 3000 years was the dominant power in the region.
- 8:00 The Agenda with Steve Paikin
 In-depth analysis and intelligent debate on the issues that are changing our world at home and abroad. For nightly topics, visit tvo.org/theagenda.
- 9:00 Heartbeat
Endangered Species
An old lady finds that her and her handicapped son are under pressure from badger baiters. Meanwhile, Greengrass is looking for investors to buy into his racehorse Agamemnon. 14+
- 10:00 Allan Gregg in Conversation
 Ray Jayawardhana
The University of Toronto astronomer and author of Strange New Worlds talks about the search for new planets and life beyond our solar system.
- 10:30 The Interviews
Orphans/Terrorists
Orphans: The Cider House Rules author John Irving, editor Lisa Churgin and psychotherapist Annette Kussin discuss the idea of the orphanage as a community rather than an imposing institution.
Terrorists: Authors Ana Siljak, Wesley Wark and entertainment writer Johanna Schneller discuss what drives people, male or female, to extreme measures. 14+

- 11:00 The Agenda with Steve Paikin (R)
- 12:00 Time Team
Waddon
When two neighbours install a septic tank in a back garden, they find pottery shards that lead them to wonder if people had been living on the site hundreds, possibly thousands, of years ago. Aerial photographs show "lumps and bumps" emerging from the fields and hills wherever the eye can see. Time Team's three-day dig takes the evidence of human settlement back to post-medieval, Iron Age and even Neolithic times.
- 1:00 Recreating Eden
Seed of Hope
In the 1990s David Kamp left his job as a landscape architect to start his own business dedicated to the creation of gardens. He applies the therapeutic qualities of nature to all of his projects, including a 9/11 memorial in Pennsylvania.
- 1:30 Big Ideas (R)
See Saturday at 5 pm.

See Tuesday at 7 pm.
- 5:00 Big Ideas
 Adam Gopnik: Remembering Winter
Bestselling author, essayist and New Yorker contributor Adam Gopnik delivers the fifth installment of his 2011 CBC Massey Lectures. Gopnik offers a delightful meditation and reflection on winter, drawing from his memories of growing up in Montreal as well as from the works of other artists, writers and thinkers who have shaped our ideas about the most memorable of seasons.
- 6:00 Allan Gregg in Conversation (R)
See Friday at 10 pm.
- 6:30 The Interviews (R)
See Friday at 10:30 pm.

- 7:00 NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC
 Great Migrations: Feast or Famine
Every migration is an epic journey, driven in large part by hunger. Every day, millions of creatures are moving in search of greener pastures. From microscopic plankton to rare desert elephants, from predatory bald eagles to luminous jellyfish, from ravenous great white sharks to lightning-quick peregrine falcons, our planet is on the move. Countless creatures on timeless journeys, moving in numbers, surviving as one.
- 8:00 SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES
Theme: From the City to the Sticks
- 8:00 Welcome to the Sticks (2008)
 Philippe Abrams (Kad Merad) goes to great lengths trying to get a job transfer to the French Riviera in hopes of making his beautiful wife happy. But after an attempt to scam an inspector fails, he is sent to work in Bergues in northern France – the equivalent of Siberia in his mind. Philippe travels there alone, saving his family the burden of moving to the sticks. Once Philippe settles in the new town, he realizes it has more charm than he ever thought, but he doesn't let his wife in on this little secret. Directed by Danny Boon. 14+
- 9:50 The Interviews
 The big city can be a confusing place to someone who arrives from a small town. But what happens when the role is reversed? Is it just as confusing to go from hustle and bustle to quiet and remote? Welcome to the Sticks and One False Move explore the challenges faced when moving from the big city to the small town. Featuring discussions with director Carl Franklin, actors Michael Beach and Jim Metzler and writer Tom Epperson. 14+
- 10:10 One False Move (1992) (DV)
 Three criminals head to small-town Arkansas after a messy drug rip-off in LA. The police are on their tail and enlist eager local Chief of Police Dale "Hurricane" Dixon to help with the investigation. Dixon is more than willing to help his LA counterparts, but as information comes out possibly connecting him to one of the criminals, his dedication is tested as he tries to prevent past secrets from surfacing. Directed by Carl Franklin and starring Bill Paxton, Michael Beach, Cynda Williams and Billy Bob Thornton. 14+
- 12:00 The Interviews (R)
- 12:30 The Little Drummer Girl (1984)
Diane Keaton plays an actress recruited by an Israeli general to infiltrate a Palestinian terrorist group and help trap an assassin. With Yorgo Voyagis, Klaus Kinski and Sami Frey. Directed by George Roy Hill. Based on a novel by John le Carre. 14+

See Friday at 10:30 pm.

6:30 Allan Gregg in Conversation (R)
See Friday at 10 pm.

7:00 Darwin's Lost Voyage
Contrary to conventional belief, Charles Darwin's greatest epiphanies did not occur in the Galapagos Islands. They were a culmination of years exploring the wilds of South America, a world teeming with life. What he found along the way was perplexing to a 19th-century naturalist.

8:00 The Little Black School House
Many of the students who attended Canada's all-black schools look back on the experience with conflicting feelings: fondness for the dedication of their black teachers, and outrage at being denied a right fundamental to democracy; equal access to education. The last all-black school, in Guysborough County, N.S., closed in 1983. With a vibrant musical score composed by jazz legend Joe Sealy.

9:00 New Tricks
Only the Brave
The UCOS team reinvestigate the murder of Eddie Chapman, leader of a notorious criminal motorbike gang, The Braves, when new evidence is brought to them by an unlikely source.
